

REMARKS

This Rule 312 Amendment adds new dependent claims 30-36 to generally conform to the claimed subject matter and does not change the scope of the invention. Support can be found in the specification as originally filed. Therefore, these Amendments do not raise new questions of patentability, include new matter or require additional searching / examination.

Regarding Claim 30, Claim 30 includes subject matter of grooves 4052 shown in, for example, Fig. 61.

Regarding Claim 31, Claim 31 includes subject matter of at least one cam track 4072 shown in, for example, Fig. 61.

Regarding Claim 32, Claim 32 includes subject matter of the cam track and cam track surface as shown in, for example, Fig. 61 and disclosed in Para 0340, lines 4-7 of US2004/0133162 ("the publication").

Regarding Claim 33, Claim 33 includes subject matter of posts 4066 as shown in, for example, Fig. 61 and disclosed in Para 0338, lines 8-9 of the publication.

Regarding Claim 34, Claim 34 includes subject matter the flexible ring as shown in, for example, Fig.'s 66 and 67 and disclosed in Para 0338, lines 5-7 of the publication.

Regarding Claim 35, Claim 35 includes subject matter of posts and curved portions as shown in, for example, Fig.'s 66 and 67 and disclosed in Para 0338, lines 7-9 of the publication.

Regarding Claim 36, Claim 36 includes subject matter of posts and curved portions as shown in, for example, Fig.'s 66 and 67 and disclosed in Para 0338, lines 7-9 of the publication.

Respectfully submitted,

By /jill denesvich/
Jill Denesvich
Attorney for Applicant(s)
Registration No. 52,810